Cultivated on a southeast facing slope at 1,150 feet above sea level, this Grenache is grown exclusively for rosé production. Intentionally pale, even slightly coppery, we like that the wine doesn't look like a traditional pink wine. succulent, and fragrant with aromas of strawberry and spice, this wine presents a lively and energetic lift on the palate. This style resonates from the cool, elevated Blue Mountain Vineyard. Echolands is produced by Doug Frost and winemaker Brian Rudin.
